

BEEF MARKET OVERLOADED!

By the Boycott.

We are very glad to quote much lower prices for this week, owing to the beef houses being overloaded, due to the small demand for fresh meats.

We certainly are in favor of lower prices than we have had, and trust the market quotations will keep on a lower level.

Please note our low prices and remember it is on only A-1 quality.

SALVATION ARMY LEADERS

TO LEAVE TOWN

Ensign Metcalfe Promoted to Adjutant—Has Done Good Work Here.

Ensign A. C. Metcalfe and his wife of the local branch of the Salvation Army have received notice of their promotion and are about to leave for adjutant, and also under favorable circumstances, but do not yet know to what post they are assigned. There is a distinguishable friend here will regret to have them leave, but are gratified at the advancement that is given as a recognition of their faithful work for the army.

They came here from Barre, Vt., in the first week of last November, and have had over 14 years' experience in pointing their first. Their latest appointment being their last. Ensign Metcalfe has changed the headquarters of the Army here to the Chapman building, placing it in an eligible situation for effective work by his successor. It is not known yet what will succeed Adjutant and Mrs.

Metcalfe here.

EMBROIDERED AUTOGRAPHS

OF SPANISH WAR OFFICERS

Framed and Hung in the Third Company Room by Captain Hagberg.

There has been hung in the Third company room at the army headquarters tistic arrangement of autographs of the officers of the Third Connecticut voultier Infantry. There is a six-pointed star about a circle. In the circle, worked in red, are the words,

Spanish War Veterans 32 C. V. I., encamped June 22, 1898, to March 20, 1899. On the sides of the star points are the autographs of the captains twelve in number of the regiment, while radiating from the star like the stars are the names of the 14 lieutenants, alternately worked in red and blue on a white background. The signatures were secured by Captain Hagberg at the camp ten years ago, and the embroidery was done by Mrs.

Hagberg, the colors being red and blue. It is a highly prized souvenir of the Spanish war, and excites much admiration.
